

Dolphin Landscape merges with Austin Outdoor

By staff report

Originally published 04:28 p.m., August 12, 2009

Updated 04:28 p.m., August 12, 2009

TREASURE COAST — Austin Outdoor, a Yellowstone Landscape Group company, has merged with Dolphin Landscape, a commercial landscape maintenance company headquartered in West Palm Beach, and serving Martin, St. Lucie and Palm Beach counties.

All members of the Dolphin Landscape joined the Austin Outdoor, expanding resources and expertise for clients throughout the Southeast Florida region.

“Dolphin Landscape was a perfect fit for our company,” said Edward Schatz, Jr., president of Austin Outdoor. “We were drawn to the enthusiasm of Dolphin’s leadership and their impeccable landscape care practices and their long-term client relationships.”

Dolphin Landscape, led by Kenny Lopez the past 27 years, has grown to include 150 employees with offices in Loxahatchee, Palm City and Port St. Lucie.

Lopez now is a business development professional with Austin Outdoor.

Austin Outdoor now serves 12 Florida counties with a combined 500 employees throughout the East Central, Northeast, Central and Southeast regions.

